THE Two ORPHANS.—The audience which assembled in the Opera House last night to witness the performance of the Two Orphans' by the Harrison Combination was not of large dimensions, although an appreciative one. Miss Laura Alberta, as Louise the Blind Girl, and Miss Alice Harrison, as the sister Henriette, carried off the honors of the evening. Mr. Harry Ellis, as Jacques Frochard, gave us one of the best renditions of that character. Mr. J. V. Melton made an excellent Chevalier, and Messrs, Harrison, Sutherland and Davis, together with Misses Le Brun, Newton and Wells, made the beautiful play one of the most delightful performances that we have seen at the Opera House this season. We pledge our citizens an enjoyable treat to-night, their last performance in this city. As a guaranty we should say that the entertain user is under Messra, Harrison, Statherland and Davis,
